World Bowling Tour Rules

1 Overview

- 1.1 World Tenpin Bowling Association (WTBA) organizes a bowling tour.
- 1.2 The name of the tour is the "World Bowling Tour" (WBT) followed by the year of the tour (in this case WBT 2011).
- 1.3 The WBT is owned by WTBA, and governed and administered by the WTBA Presidium, which in its discretion may designate a committee or other entity for regular supervision of the WBT.
- 1.4 The WBT Rules are maintained by and can only be changed by the WTBA Presidium.

2 Tournaments in the tour

- 2.1 The WBT consists of tournaments owned by the tournament organisers.
- 2.2 Tournaments adopted in the WBT are in general known as WBT Tournaments.
- 2.3 WBT Tournaments are conducted in countries falling under the jurisdiction of WTBA.
- 2.4 WBT Tournaments are, without limitations, open to entry by all players, who are a member of one of the WTBA member federations, unless the player is suspended by one of the member federations, by a zone, by WTBA or by FIQ.
- 2.5 WBT Tournaments must include at least one individual event, either conducted in separate divisions for women and men or conducted as a combined division for both genders.
- 2.6 WBT Tournaments must have in their format a finals in which more than one match will be conducted.
- 2.7 It is recommended that there be TV coverage for the semi-finals and the finals.
- 2.8 Each tournament agrees to comply with all provisions contained in the WBT Tournament Application where applicable.
- 2.9 The favorable reputation of the WBT, its tournaments and players is a valuable asset and creates tangible benefits for all WBT stakeholders . Accordingly, it is an obligation for WBT tournaments, owner(s), promoter(s), operator(s) or representative(s) thereof, to refrain from engaging in conduct contrary to the integrity of the sport of bowling. Conduct contrary to the integrity of the sport shall include, but not be limited to, comments to the news media that unreasonably attack or disparage a tournament, sponsor, player, official or the WBT. Responsible expressions of legitimate disagreement with the WBT policies are not prohibited. However, public comments that one of the stated persons above knows, or should reasonably know, will harm the reputation or financial best interests of a tournament, player, sponsor, official or the WBT are expressly covered by this section. Violation of this section shall subject a tournament to a loss or change in membership status, and/or forfeiture of all sums, if any, previously paid to the WBT.

3 Categories

3.1 Definitions

- a. The prize fund (all prize money allocated for individual players in the international part of the tournament) must be minimum US $ 100.000, or 75% of the total amount of entry fees paid by all entering players, whichever is greater.
- b. There must be at least 48 international prizes.

4 Selection

- 4.1 Only tournaments approved through the process described in WTBA Statutes 3.2.1(c) can be adopted in the WBT.
- 4.2 The tournaments in the WBT will be selected once a year based on an invitation to organizers of WBT Tournaments in the foregoing tour, followed by applications from organizers and finally followed by a selection process based on the applications and possible further evaluations or investigations.
- 4.3 Regardless if all areas of an application from a tournament, not adopted in the previous year's WBT, meet all criteria for adoption in the tour, it is the right of the WTBA to reject such tournament in its sole discretion.

5 Fees

- 5.1 The fee for a WBT Tournament is US $ 5.000.
- 5.2 When an organizer is submitting an application for adoption in the tour, it is the obligation of the organizer to transfer the relevant WBT fee to the account of WTBA. The application is not valid until the full amount has been received by WTBA. If an application for adoption in the tour is rejected, 100% of the fee will be reimbursed.
- 5.3 WBT fees will, in principle, be used for WBT-related purposes.

- b. 2nd step, the bowler with the second highest finish, in the case of further tie;
- c. 3rd step, the bowler with the third highest finish, in the case of further tie; etc.

8 Bonus Pool

8.1 The WTBA intends to develop a bonus pool for distribution to the highest-ranked players at the conclusion of each WBT year, beginning with BWT 2011. The bonus pool for BWT 2011 will be $7,500USD for each gender. After BWT 2011, points will be cumulative over a two-year period of time, and will drop off each player's total on a continuous basis. Thus, commencing at the end of BWT 2012, bonus pool points will be determined on the basis of two year totals.

9 Tiered tournaments

Should it occur, the organizer shall pay WTBA 20% of the difference between the changed prize fund and the prize fund listed when the tour was published.
- 10.4 If any national tax rule will or might influence the size of prizes to be paid to one or more players taking part, it is the obligation of the organizer to publish these rules at the WTBA Website. For tournaments, where no national tax rules are published at the WTBA Website, the organizer shall pay the prizes in full as listed.
